Complete USD's First Destination Survey to share what's next for you after graduation. The "still looking" option is a valid answer that provides important information! The survey stays open until December 31st, so you can update later (but answer now!). You'll be entered into a drawing to receive one of three free diploma frames (valued up to $170).

The survey is confidential, and only aggregate data is used for reports or analysis—your personal details, including salary, are never shared!

This takes you to your personal Coyote Careers landing page. Click on the blue 'First Destination Survey' box to take the survey.
