DONOR GIFT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Participating in the Calling All Coyotes event and making a donation of the item(s) listed in the Gift In-Kind Form, it is without further restriction to the University of South Dakota Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. In doing so, I hereby relinquish all claims to ownership of said property and further acknowledge that acceptance of this donation is subject to the full discretion and policies of the University of South Dakota Foundation. I further acknowledge that none of the information contained in this document or supporting literature is intended to serve as tax or legal advice and that the University of South Dakota Foundation strongly encourages donors to consult their tax professionals or legal counsel to investigate and fully understand the tax consequences of charitable gifts. I understand that different IRS rules may apply depending on the value of in-kind contributions, and will supply the University of South Dakota Foundation, if requested, with the information necessary to determine the value of my in-kind gift(s). I accept that it is my sole responsibility to substantiate the fair market value of my donations for tax purposes. Be further advised that changes in U.S. tax law, effective January 1, 2018, may impact the tax deductibility of contributions that directly or indirectly convey to donors the right to purchase tickets or seating at collegiate athletic events. The Yote Fund awards "Coyote Points" for gifts made to the Calling All Coyotes event, which are used, in part, to determine seating priority at USD Coyote Athletic events. Donors may, however, opt out of or abstain from The Yote Fund's priority seating benefits to preserve the charitable nature of their contributions. The University of South Dakota Foundation's tax ID number is: 46-6018891.
